

Privacy notice

Nordania Finans A/S (Danske Leasing A/S), which is part of Danske Bank Group, and Nordania Leasing, division of Danske Bank A/S (in the following collectively referred to as “Nordania”) are financial institutions that offer financial advice and leasing and loan services to their customers.

In the course of our business, we register and use information about you (personal data) when you interact with us as an individual who is connected with a business or corporate customer of ours. You could be an authorised signatory, a beneficial owner, a director, an employee, a guarantor, a pledgor or a third party connected to our customer. We may process your personal data for any of the following purposes, depending on the capacity in which you interact with us:

- Meeting our obligations and providing services and products to our customers
- Complying with applicable law, including anti-money laundering legislation
- For administrative purposes, including to secure and maintain our internal systems, platforms and other digital applications
- Upholding an adequate level of security when you visit our premises
- Carrying out controls to prevent fraud and financial crime
- Managing the customer relationship, including marketing of services and products

We will only register and process your personal data if we have a legal basis to do so.

This means that we register and use personal data when

- you have made or you are considering making an agreement with us for a service or product, cf. the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) art. 6.1(b)
- you have granted us consent to use your personal data for a specific purpose, cf. GDPR art. 6.1(a)
- we have to comply with certain legal obligations in accordance with, for example
  - The Danish Anti-Money Laundering Act (Hvidvaskloven)
  - The Danish Tax Control Act (Skattekontrolloven)
  - The Danish Bookkeeping Act (Bogføringsloven)
  - The Danish Credit Agreements Act (Kreditaftaleloven)
  - The Danish Financial Business Act (Lov om finansiel virksomhed)
  - The Danish Payments Act (Betalingsloven)
  - The Danish Data Protection Act (Databeskyttelsesloven)
- we or the business or corporate customer that you have a connection with pursue a legitimate interest. This could be when we or the customer have a business or commercial reason, such as to administrate the services and products that the customer has requested and to give you the necessary access to digital services. We may also use your personal data if we need to prevent abuse and loss, strengthen IT and payment security or want to use them for marketing purposes. We will only do so if our interest clearly outweighs your interest in not having your personal data processed by us, cf. GDPR art. 6.1(f).

What personal data do we register and use?

We typically process the following types of personal data:

- Basic personal information, for instance your name, address, occupation, contact information, country of residence, social security number and date of birth
- Identification documentation, for example a photocopy of your passport, driving licence or birth certificate
- Information provided by you about preferences for various types of marketing events
- Information about your education, profession, work, knowledge and experience
- Digital information related to your use of our websites, platforms and digital applications, including, traffic data, location data and other communication data
- Information related to the devices you use to access our websites as well as technical information, including the type of device and operating system
- Information about your visits to our premises
- Telephone conversations if we talk with you about our services

Sensitive data

Nordania may also register sensitive data about you if required by law, cf. GDPR art. 9.2(a), or if you participate in customer events arranged by us. We will seek your explicit consent, cf. GDPR art. 9.2(f), to register sensitive personal data unless the law permits us to register such data without your consent. The sensitive personal data we may register include

- information about your health, for instance allergies
- biometric data, such as facial image

How long do we store your personal data?

We keep your data only for as long as they are needed for the purpose for which your data were registered and used. Therefore, we keep your information as long as we are providing a financial service or product to you. When your business relations with us have terminated, we normally keep your data for a further 7 years. This is primarily due to our obligations under the Danish Bookkeeping Act (bogføringsloven), the Danish Anti-Money Laundering Act (hvidvaskloven) and requirements from the Danish Financial Supervisory Authority (Finanstilsynet). In certain circumstances we keep your information for a longer period of time. This is the case for example

- if your personal data form part of our calculation of our capital adequacy requirements, in which case we may keep your data for up to 20 years,
- if the statute of limitation is 10 years, in which case we may keep your data for up to 10 years.

Third parties and personal data

Personal data from third parties

We register and use data from third parties, for instance

- The Danish Central Office of Civil Registration (CPR-kontoret) and other publicly accessible sources and registers. We register and use the data they have about you to check that the data you have provided to us are accurate.
- Entities of Danske Bank Group (if we have your consent), credit rating agencies and warning registers. We register and use the data to perform credit assessments and update the data regularly.
- Entities of Danske Bank Group. We register and use data from their notifications to the State Prosecutor for Serious Economic and International Crime (SØIK) in accordance with anti-money laundering legislation.
- Entities of Danske Bank Group and business partners (including correspondent banks and other banks) if we have your consent or if it is allowed by law. We register and use the data to enable our customers to use banking services abroad, for example.

Which third parties do we share your personal data with?

In some cases, we may share personal data with third parties inside or outside Danske Bank Group:

- We disclose personal data to public authorities as required by law, including to the State Prosecutor for Serious Economic and International Crime (SØIK) in accordance with the Danish Anti-Money Laundering Act (hvidvaskloven), to the Danish Customs and Tax Administration (Skattemyndighederne) in accordance with the Danish Tax Control Act (skattekontrolloven), to the Danish Financial Supervisory Authority (Finanstilsynet) and to the Danish central bank (Danmarks Nationalbank) for statistical and other purposes.
- With your consent or if we are allowed by law, or in order to perform a contract to which you are a party, we may disclose data internally within Danske Bank Group and to external business partners (including correspondent banks and other banks).
- We share personal data with credit rating agencies. If you default on your obligations towards Nordania, we may report you to credit rating agencies and/or warning registers in accordance with applicable law.
- In connection with IT development, hosting and support, we transfer personal data to data processors, including data processors in third countries outside the EU and the EEA such as Danske Bank in India. We ensure that your rights are safeguarded and protected in such data transfers by using, for example, standard contracts approved by the European Commission or the Danish Data Protection Agency (Datatilsynet). You can get a copy of the standard contract by contacting us.

Your rights

Access to your personal data

You can get access to the personal data we have registered about you, how we use them and where they come from. You can obtain information about how long we store your data and who receives data about you to the extent that we disclose personal data in Denmark and abroad. Your right of access may be restricted by legislation, for the purpose of protection of other persons' privacy and consideration for our business and practices. Our know-how, business secrets as well as internal assessments and material may also be exempt from the right of access.

Right to object

In certain circumstances, you have the right to object to our processing of your personal information including when we rely on our legitimate interest to process your personal information.

You also have the right to object to our use of your personal information for direct marketing purposes, including profiling that is related to such purpose.

Correction or erasure of Nordania's data

If the data we have registered about you are incorrect, incomplete or irrelevant, you are entitled to have the data corrected or erased subject to restrictions in existing legislation and our rights to process data. These rights of correction and erasure are known as the "right to rectification", "right to erasure" and "right to be forgotten".

Restriction of use

If you believe that the data we have registered about you are incorrect or if you have objected to the use of the data, you may demand that we restrict the use of the data to storage until the correctness of the data can be verified or it can be checked whether our legitimate interests outweigh your interests.

If you are entitled to have your data erased, you may instead request us to restrict the use of the data to storage. If we need to use the data solely to assess a legal claim, you may also demand that any other use of the data be restricted to storage. We may, however, be entitled to other use of the data, including to assess a legal claim or if you have given your consent to this.

Withdrawal of consent

You can withdraw your consent at any given time. Please note that if you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to offer you specific services or products. Note also that we will continue to use your personal data, for example if we are required to do so by law.

Data portability

If we use data based on your consent or an agreement, and the data processing is automated, you have the right to receive a copy of the data you have provided in an electronic machine-readable format.
